1. How will the district determine and regularly monitor caseloads of special education teachers?

Johnston Community Schools will provide a full continuum of placements by providing instructional services to eligible preschool children while adhering to the following program standards: 1. Iowa Quality Preschool Performance (QPPS); 2. Head Start Program Performance Standards; or 3. National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) Accreditation The regular early childhood program and early childhood special education program will meet the criteria of the Preschool Program Standard being implemented regarding maximum class size and teacher-child ratios. Caseload Determination National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) (Please refer to QPPS Addendum) Caseloads will be tentatively set in the spring for the following year. Caseloads may be modified based on summer registration and actual fall enrollments. Caseloads will be reviewed at least twice during the school year by individual district special education teachers with their building principal and/or district special education director. In determining teacher caseloads, the Johnston Community School District will use the following values to assign points to the programs of each eligible individual receiving an instructional program in the district. A teacher may be assigned a caseload within a range of 30-45 total points. This caseload limit may be exceeded by no more than 10% for a period of no more than nine weeks, if doing so does not prevent the affected teacher's ability to provide the services and supports specified in his or her student's IEPs. Services may be provided within the district or through contractual agreement with other districts and/or agencies. The continuum includes services for eligible individuals ages 3-5.

How will service be organized and provided to eligible individuals kindergarten through age 21?

Kindergarten to Age 21

Consulting Teacher Services: Consulting Teacher Services are defined as indirect services provided by a certified special education teacher to a general education teacher in adjusting the learning environment and/or modifying his/her instructional methods using specially designed instruction strategies to meet the individual needs of a student with a disability receiving instruction in the general education classroom.

Co-Teaching Services: Co-teaching Services are defined as the provision of specially designed instruction and academic instruction provided to a group of students with disabilities and nondisabled students. These services are provided by the special education teacher and general education teacher in partnership to meet the content and skill needs of students in the general education classroom. These services may incorporate several different approaches: 1) One Teach, One Observe; 2) One Teacher, One Assist; 3) Station Teaching; 4) Parallel Teaching; 5) Alternative Teaching; and 6) Teaming. (Please refer to the Co-Teaching Addendum for additional information)

Supplementary Services in the General Education Environment: Supplementary Services in the General Education Environment are defined as direct specially designed instruction provided to an individual student with a disability or to a group of students with disabilities by a certified special education teacher in a general education classroom to aid the student(s) in accessing the general education curriculum. These services are provided simultaneously with the general education content area instruction.

Supplementary Services in the Special Education Environment: Supplementary Services in the Special Education Environment are defined as direct specially designed instruction provided to an individual student with a disability or a group of students with disabilities by a certified special education teacher to provide supplementary instruction that cannot otherwise be provided during the student's regular instruction time. These services are provided to an individual or small group setting for a portion of the day and supplement the instruction provided in the general education classroom through Consulting Teacher services or Collaborative/Co-teaching services. The specially designed instruction provided in these settings is in addition to the instruction provided in the general education classroom.

Special Class Services: Special Class Services are defined as direct specially designed instruction provided to an individual student with a disability or a group of students with disabilities by a certified special education teacher to provide instruction which is tied to the general education curriculum, through extended benchmarks, but has been modified to meet the unique needs of the student(s) in a self contained setting (including, but not limited to special classes, special schools, home instruction, and instruction in hospitals and institutions). This means the student is receiving his or her primary instruction separate from non-disabled peers.

Notes:

Students may receive different services at multiple points along the continuum based on their IEP. The district will provide access to this continuum for all eligible individuals based on their IEP. Services may be provided within the district or through contractual agreement with other districts and/or agencies. The continuum includes services for eligible individuals kindergarten – age 21.

How will caseloads of special education teachers be determined and regularly monitored?

Kindergarten - Age 21

Caseloads will be tentatively set in the spring for the following year. Caseloads may be modified based on summer registration and actual fall enrollments. Caseloads will be reviewed at least twice during the school year by individual district special education teachers with their building principal and/or district special education director.

In determining teacher caseloads, the Johnston Community School District will use the following values to assign points to the programs of each eligible individual receiving an instructional program in the district.

A teacher may be assigned a caseload within a range of 30-45 total points. This caseload limit may be exceeded by no more than 10% for a period of no more than nine weeks, if doing so does not prevent the affected teacher's ability to provide the services and supports specified in his or her student's IEPs.

3. How will the district's delivery system for eligible individuals meet the targets identified in the State Performance Plan's indicators and the LEA determinations as assigned by the state? What process will the district use to evaluate the effectiveness of the delivery system for eligible individuals?

At least once per year, district administrators and staff will examine their special education district profile to review the district's data relative to progress indicators outlined in Iowa's State Performance Plan (SPP) for special education. District administrators will also examine the district's Annual Progress Report (APR) each year to review achievement data as it pertains to students with IEPs in the district. These data will be used to determine needs and priorities and to develop an action plan for special education instructional services when necessary. If the district meets or exceeds APR goals and target goals outlined in our state performance plan for special education, the delivery system will be considered effective. If the district does not meet APR goals or SPP target goals, district staff will work in collaboration with Area Education Agency (AEA) and the State staff to develop an action plan designed to promote progress toward these goals.

4. What procedures will a special education teacher in the district use to resolve caseload concerns?

Resolution Procedures

The following procedures are to be used to resolve concerns about special education caseloads:

- 1) A special education teacher with a concern about caseload will notify a building administrator in writing.
- 2) The building principal will call together a review committee within 5 working days to problem solve and listen to the concern from the referring teacher. This committee may include the building administrator, a special education teacher, AEA staff member, and others designated.
- 3) Prior to the scheduled meeting, relevant data shall be gathered as outlined in the Caseload Determination document contained in the District Developed Special Education Plan. The teacher should also include his/her schedule. This data will be given to the building administrator at least 1 school day prior to the meeting.
- 4) During the meeting the review committee will consider available resources and scheduling possibilities. Corrective actions considered may include: realigning students, reviewing assignment of associates, reorganizing teacher resources, or prioritizing collaboration efforts to improve the delivery of service to all special education students.
- 5) Notice of action will be the responsibility of the building administrator. The review committee develops a written recommendation and the recommendation is forwarded to the teacher within 10 working days of the review committee.
- 6) If a special education teacher's concern is not resolved, then the building administrator will notify the Director of Special Education, in writing, within 5 working days of the concern. Another 5 day working period will be allowed from the written notice. The same decision may be made or an alternative corrective action may be taken. The Director of Human Services will make the final decision. This decision will be communicated in writing to the parties involved.

Note: An AEA may grant an adjusted caseload status for "good cause shown." 41.408 (2)g. A showing of good cause is highly dependent on the facts and circumstances surrounding the request and a determination of "good cause" is within the sound discretion of the AEA Special Education Director. As a general rule, "good cause" will not be satisfied by a district's unsupported request for an adjustment to its caseload, and will typically require demonstration that the district considered other alternatives before seeking an adjustment. As with all special education questions, the primary concern should be the district's ability to provide FAPE in the LRE to the eligible individuals it serves.

5. What process did the district use to develop the special education delivery system for eligible individuals?

The delivery system was developed in accordance with Iowa Administrative Code rule 41.408 (2) "c". The group of individuals who developed the system included parents of eligible individuals, special education teachers, general education teachers, administrators, and at least one representative of the AEA.

On Monday, May 4, 2009, the Johnston Board of Education approved committee members to complete a Special Education Service Delivery Plan for Johnston Community Schools. In the state of Iowa, all districts are required to develop a plan by September 15, 2009. The approved Service Delivery Plan must be inserted into the Comprehensive School Improvement Plan (CSIP) by September 15, 2009.

Step 1: The district school board approves the development of Service Delivery Plan and individuals on development committee, May 4, 2009.

Step 2: The committee developed the plan, May 18, 2009.

Step 3: The plan is available for public comment, May 25-June 15, 2009.

Step 4: The committee considers public comments.

Step 5: The AEA Special Education Director verifies plan compliance.

Step 6: The district school board approves the plan prior to adoption.

Step 7: The plan is included in the designated area of the CSIP.

Step 8: The plan is reviewed in connection with the 5 year accreditation cycle or earlier if required by determination given by the state.
