POLICY TITLE STUDENT GOOD CONDUCT RULE

No. 503.4

It is a privilege and an honor to be able to participate in extra-curricular activities and represent this school district. Students who participate in extra-curricular activities serve as ambassadors of the school district throughout the calendar year, whether away from school or at school. Extra-curricular activities provide the benefits of promoting additional interests and abilities in the students during their school years and for their lifetimes. The student and the school are judged by the participant's character and conduct at all times. Middle and high school students often serve as a role model to many people and their attitudes may have an important impact on others. Any student whose habit and conduct in and out of school, during both the school year and during the summer, are not consistent with the ideals, principles, and the standards of the school district, shall be subject to disciplinary action.

It shall be the responsibility of the superintendent or designee to develop rules and regulations for participation in school activities and disciplinary consequences for violations of said rules and regulations.
